

Council wants answers on Crown Farm

BY JAIME CIAVARRA
STAFF WRITER

County Council members on Tuesday demanded fresh answers to the Crown Farm development proposal before a scheduled vote on an annexation resolution next week.

Transferable Development Rights data, affordable housing studies, traffic mitigation plans and a draft agreement between Gaithersburg and the developer were demanded by members Philip Andrews and Marilyn

See CROWN FARM, Page A-12

School plays return from break

Schools have resumed from spring break and so have the spring plays. Here is a list of some upcoming plays:

Once Upon a Mattress

Quince Orchard High School,
15800 Quince Orchard Road,
Gaithersburg

7 p.m., April 28, 29, May 5, 6

Once Upon a Mattress takes place in a mythical kingdom that is ruled by a talkative Queen and a mute King. The queen is doing everything within her power to keep her son, Prince Dauntless, from getting married – she rejects every possible suitor. One day the wacky Princess Winnifred arrives, hoping to pass a test that will allow her to become Dauntless' wife. Whether she passes the test is the question that will be answered.

Tickets will cost $6 for students and $8 for adults.

For more information, call 301-840-4587.

The Miracle Worker

Walt Whitman High School, 7100
Whittier Blvd., Bethesda

7:30 p.m., April 27, 28, 29

Anne Sullivan wants to teach Helen Keller how to communicate, but Keller is blind and deaf. Keller who has been mute since infancy is in danger of being sent to an institution because of her disability. Her parents ask Sullivan to tutor the young girl in an effort to keep their daughter with them. Through persistence, love and sheer stubbornness Sullivan breaks through Keller's wall of silence and finally teaches her how to communicate.

Ticket cost $8 for students, $10 for adults and $15 for reserved seats.

For more information, call 301-320-6569.

Blast from the Past

Winston Churchill High School,
11300 Gainsborough Road, Potomac
7:30 p.m., Friday, April 28

2:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m., Saturday,
April 29

This musical revue explores the influence of world cultures and places on popular music with a musical theme of "Imagine One Nation." The students will put together six rocking performances and play more than a dozen songs. The performances will incorporate the sounds of Serengeti, rhythms of the jungle, the whirl of London and also include songs from the 1980s.

The tickets are $18 for evening orchestra seats and $12 for all other seats.

For more information, call 301-469-1243 or e-mail
WCHSTix@yahoo.com.